AGING-360

" Older Adulthood in the 21st Century"

PHOTO CONTEST

A hard copy of the 8 x 10 photo must be dropped off or postmarked by 4:00pm on Tuesday March 19, 2013. There will be no exceptions to the deadline, so submit early☺.

The purpose of the AGING-360 Photo Contest is to show/celebrate/acknowledge all aspects of contemporary older adulthood.

Please follow these rules:

- The photographer must be a student enrolled at the University of Iowa during spring semester 2013.
- Deadline: All photos must be received (or postmarked) by 4:00pm Tuesday March 19th 2013.
- There is no entry fee.
- Each photo must include at least one person, age 65 or older.
- The photo can be black and white, or it can be color.
- Include a caption of 10 words or less (the caption is part of the judging).
- The person submitting the photo must be the person who took the photo.
- Each person participating in the contest is allowed to submit up to TWO photos.
- Prints must be printed out on 8" x 10" on photo paper (so please do allow a small edge ☺.)
- DO NOT MOUNT the photo. We will be placing all photos in 8 x10 matting for display.
- Please also email an electronic version of the photo (or drop off a CD with the electronic image).
- ONLY hard copies will be judged.
- An entry form must be submitted with each photo. (Entry form is available on Aging Studies website)
- If the photo is taken in a location in which a person would assume privacy (for example, in someone's home), and the person in the photo is identifiable, he/she must sign the entry form giving permission to use the photo.
- Photos will not be returned. They will become the property of the Aging Studies Program.
- The photographer retains the copyright for his or her photo.
- The University of Iowa Aging Studies Program has the right to use winning and non-winning photos in any way related to publicity or teaching, at no cost.
- A panel of judges selected by the Aging Studies Program will determine winners. Photos will be judged on the basis of interest, and emotional connection. The quality of the photo can affect the judges' opinion. The caption can affect the judges' opinion.
- Winners will be announced before the end of spring semester.
