

National Student Employment Week
April 8-14, 2007

Each year 11,000 students are employed through the student hourly and Work-Study employment programs. The University of Iowa wishes to acknowledge the efforts of these employees and their contributions to the achievements of the University's goals.

The following students were nominated by their departments for the Student Employee of the Year award. Special thanks to these fine student employees and their employing departments. A mug commemorating student employee excellence was provided to each nominee.
