

HigherEdJobs.com

HigherEdJobs.com is an external employment web site designed exclusively for listing job vacancies at colleges and universities.

More importantly, the job seekers who view the web site have the academic credentials needed to work in higher education.

Cost of Posting on HigherEdJobs.com

There is no cost to organizations/departments who request a job vacancy be posted on HigherEdJobs.com.

The subscription is paid for by Central Human Resources.

What Positions Should Be Posted?

We do not envision that every job vacancy at the University of Iowa will be posted on HigherEdJobs.com.

We would expect it to be used when there has been past difficulty filling a vacancy or a job classification and/or the position is under-represented by women and/or minorities.
