

Learning Portfolio Faculty Review

STUDENT NAME: _____ ID _____

To the Faculty Member: In order to graduate, every student admitted to the School as a major in the Spring of 2005 or later must submit a learning portfolio by the 8th week of their final semester. Each portfolio must have been reviewed by at least one faculty member and then will be turned into the Associate Director to certify its completeness for graduation.

Please make sure the portfolio contains:

- ___ An up-to-date one page resume.
- ___ Annotated work samples that support goals and explain understanding of Iowa Dozen
- ___ A two-page self-analysis that describes their progress toward professional goals and a strategy to continue professional growth and development.

Please take some time to look over the portfolio with the student and share your thoughts. Below, mark how well you feel the student has prepared and write any additional comments.

To what degree does the student:	Exceeds expectations	Meets expectations	Doesn't meet expectations	N/A
Write correctly, clearly and well
Conduct research and gather information responsibly
Edit and evaluate carefully
Use media technologies thoughtfully
Apply statistical concepts accurately
Value free speech and First Amendment principles
Value a diverse global community
Value creativity and independence
Value truth, accuracy and fairness
Understand theories and concepts
Understand the history, structure and economy of media institutions
Understand the role of media in shaping culture

Comments:

_____
Name and Title

_____
Date