

Faculty Senate No Confidence Resolution

Tuesday, December 12, 2006

[Vote: 62 in support; 1 opposed]

WHEREAS, the University of Iowa faculty recognize that the Board of Regents has the statutory responsibility to govern the University and to appoint our president, and

WHEREAS, the Board's leadership owes the people of the State of Iowa a duty of care in carrying out their statutory responsibilities, and

WHEREAS, this duty of care obligates the Board's leadership to take reasonable care in acting in the best interests of public higher education and the people of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents' leadership has repeatedly breached the duty of care they owe to Iowans,

NOW THEREFORE, the Faculty Senate of The University of Iowa expresses its lack of trust and confidence in the leadership of the Iowa Board of Regents.
