Alpha Phi Omega Campership

This campership is available to any registered Girl Scout in the Mississippi Valley Council area but there is no restriction of location or type of camp that the applicant would be attending. Applications are due FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 2009.

Camperships are awarded annually by the Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity. The number of camperships that are available is determined by the amount of funds available, which are generated by the Scouting programs of Alpha Phi Omega.

The following criteria are used to award camperships:

1. Cadets and Seniors

Write an essay about Leadership, Friendship, and Service, not to exceed 500 words. The essay should focus on the following points:

- How do you demonstrate these principles in your daily life?
- What have you done in Scouting and in your community to exemplify these principles?
- How will the camp that you will attend help you improve these qualities?

Brownies and Juniors

Please complete an essay, to the best of the girl's ability, on one of the above questions (Length should be determined according to the girl's age – approximately 1/2 page for younger girls and up to 1 1/2 pages for older girls.)

2. Completion of the general information application. incomplete information may result in disqualification, please contact Sammy Ryan (aposcout@hotmail.com) if you have any concerns
3. Special considerations applicable to each applicant.
4. All materials submitted are original work of the applicant and legible.

Completed applications may be sent to:
