

Certificate in American Sign Language and Deaf Studies Checklist
18 hours total for certification

Name: _____ Date: _____

The Certificate in ASL/Deaf Studies may be earned by any undergraduate student who 1) satisfies the language requirement by successfully completing the ASL I-IV sequence, 158:011 to 158:014, or by demonstrating equivalent proficiency; and 2) earns a minimum of 18 semester hours of credit in approved courses from at least three different departments, including at least 6 hours in core courses.

ASL Program: Choose at least two of the following core courses:

- _____ 158:100/16A:104 History of the American Deaf Community (3) offered Fall
- _____ 158:101 Topics in Deaf Studies (3) offered Fall even years
- _____ 158:103 American Sign Language Literature
- _____ 158:104 Issues in ASL and Deaf Studies (3) offered Spring
- _____ 158:106 Introduction to ASL Interpreting
- _____ 158:110/07U:110 Teaching Deaf and Hard of Hearing Students (3) offered Fall
- _____ 158:111 American Sign Language Conversation (3) offered Fall odd years

In addition to the above, students shall complete at least 12 semester hours in elective courses chosen from at least two of the following departments. Choose at least four courses from two or more of the following departments:

Speech Pathology and Audiology

- _____ 003:117 Psychology of Language
- _____ 003:185 Hearing Loss and Audiometry
- _____ 003:244 Rehabilitative Audiology

College of Education-Special Education

- _____ 07U:100 Mainstreaming the Exceptional Learner
(open only to students who are admitted to the Teacher Education program)
- _____ 07U:130 Exceptional Persons (will be phased out in 2003-04)
- _____ 07U:133 The Culturally Different in Diverse Settings
- _____ 07U:110 Teaching Deaf and Hard of Hearing Students (same as 158:110)

History

- _____ 16A:106 Disability in American History
- _____ 16A:104 History of the American Deaf Community (same as 158:100)

Psychology

- _____ 031:113 Language Processing (prereq. 31:016) (same as 103:115)

Social Work

- _____ 042:147 Discrimination, Oppression, and Diversity

Linguistics

- _____ 103:011 Language and Society
- _____ 103:115 Language Processing (prereq. 131:016) (same as 031:113)
- _____ 103:030 Language and Mind
- _____ 103:045 Language Rights
- _____ 103:100 Introduction to Linguistics
- _____ 103:150 Language and Gender (same as 113:173)

Anthropology

- _____ 113:014 Language, Culture, and Communication
- _____ 113:172 Language and Culture
- _____ 113:173 Language and Gender (same as 103:150)
- _____ 113:174 Ethnography of Communication
- _____ 113:179 Language and Identity

Students may petition to have courses not on this list approved for certificate requirements.