

TESTIMONY TO TOLERANCE: BUILDING BRIDGES ACROSS HUMAN DIVERSITY

Thursday, September 28, 2006

3:30-5:30 PM

C20 Pomerantz Center

Open to the Public

Opening Remarks: Murray Ebner

Holocaust Survivor reflects on his documentary

“A Survivor’s Journey”

Winner of the Emmy and Orion Awards

Directed by Sam Nahem

Presentation of:

Testimony to Tolerance Initiative

USC Shoah Foundation Institute for Visual History and Education

“Voices That Will Never Be Silenced” by Kathie Swift

Education Site Coordinator, Des Moines Public Library

Panel Discussion: “Never Again” - reflections from survivor family members

4:30-5:30 PM

Facilitated by Dr. Samuel Becker, Professor Emeritus

The University of Iowa

Join the beginning of a year-long campus community coalition designed to reduce prejudice, bigotry and intolerance. Learn more about the Des Moines Library’s “Testimony to Tolerance Initiative” featuring (17) Iowa Holocaust testimonies from survivors and witnesses. Learn how to access a locally made educational package to inspire personal responsibility for prejudice reduction.

Reception following at:

The University of Iowa Hillel

122 E. Market Street

5:30—6:30 PM

Sponsored by: Office Equal Opportunity and Diversity, University Libraries, Department of History, Department of Religious Studies, University of Iowa Hillel, University Lecture Committee, College of Education Diversity Committee, Office of International Students and Scholars, and the UI Center for Human Rights

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact the Office of Equal Opportunity & Diversity in advance at 335-0705.