

Race & Sport International Symposium & Town Hall Meeting

October 12-14, 2006

Iowa Memorial Union

Sessions on:

Sport, Race and the Media ♦ African-American Athlete Experience
♦ Post-empire Games ♦ Whites in Sports ♦ Understanding Africa
Through Sports ♦ Emerging National Imagery of Korean and Japanese Athletes ♦ The Olympics ♦ Aboriginal voices
♦ Mexican Americans and Japanese Americans in Sports

Keynote speaker: Colin King, professor, Goldsmiths College,
University of London

Topic: Racial Inequality in England's Professional Soccer Leagues

Town Hall Meeting Panelists:

Michael Boit - Olympic bronze medalist and professor,
Kenyatta University, Kenya

Tina Sloan Green - professor and founder, Black Women in Sport
Foundation

Darius Smith – director, Denver Anti-Discrimination Office

Bill Rhoden - New York Times sportswriter

Charlotte Westerhaus - vice president of diversity,
National Collegiate Athletic Association

Colin King - keynote speaker and professor

For more information contact Michael Lomax at 319-335-9340

Race and Sport – Building a Global Understanding

Sponsored by the University of Iowa (UI) Department of Athletics, UI Division of Student Services, National Collegiate Athletic Association, Coca-Cola Bottling Company, and Humanities Iowa