

PHILIP G. HUBBARD
HUMAN RIGHTS AWARD FOR STUDENTS
2011 NOMINATIONS

The University of Iowa Human Rights Committee invites nominations for the annual Philip G. Hubbard Human Rights Award. This award is presented to a University of Iowa student who has made the most outstanding contribution in the area of human rights within the University community during the previous year. To be eligible, a student must be enrolled during the current academic year and be working on a course of study intended to lead toward a degree. Beginning in 2011 the award may be given to one undergraduate and one graduate/professional student who meet the established criteria. Information about the Hubbard Human Rights Award, previous recipients, and nomination form with procedures and criteria can be found at <http://www.uiowa.edu/~hrc/events2.html> Nominations due Tuesday, February 22, 2011 in 249 Iowa Memorial Union. If you have questions contact Brian White, Chair, Human Rights Committee at 356-2462 or brian-a-white@uiowa.edu
