

LIVING WITH TOPSOIL

TENDING SPIRITS, CHERISHING LAND
7TH HARVEST LECTURE

LIVING IN IOWA MEANS COMING TO TERMS WITH OUR
TOPSOIL. JOIN SOME OF IOWA'S FINEST WRITERS
AS THEY HARVEST, DIG AND EXPLORE
THE RICH LAND WHERE WE LIVE.

October 21, Thursday, 7 p.m., Iowa City Public Library,
Auditorium A, Iowa City

November 4, Thursday, 7 p.m., James & Meryl Hearst
Center for the Arts, 304 West Seerley Blvd, Cedar Falls

November 18, Thursday, 4:15 p.m., Center for Prairie
Studies, North Forum Lounge, Grinnell College

This year's Harvest Lecture participants:

Mary Swander, Michael Carey, Cornelia F. Mutel, Thomas K. Dean,
Timothy Fay, Patrick Irelan, Larry Stone & Steve Semken

A companion publication, Living With Topsoil, will be available at each lecture.
Speakers will vary from location to location. FMI e-mail icecube@inav.net

Events sponsored by The Standing By Words Center, UI Project on Place Studies,
Humanities Iowa, Krumm Foundation, Lutheran Campus Ministry-UI.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Thomas Dean in advance at (319)335-1995