

Iowa Archaeology Month Native Ioway History Week

The following events are scheduled throughout the state of Iowa during the months of September, October, November, 2007. Events include the world premiere of the movie

LOST NATION: THE IOWAY

*Please join us in celebrating Ioway culture and history!
Events are free unless otherwise noted.*

PRESENTATIONS PRIOR TO NATIVE IOWAY HISTORY WEEK

September 22, Sat., 10am-10:30pm, ARCHAEOLOGY DAY at Effigy Mounds National Monument. Hikes, ancient technology demonstrations, Native American dance and music featuring Pete Fee, Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska, and family (www.nps.gov/efmo).

September 21-October 21, Museum of Natural History, University of Iowa, 10 Macbride Hall, Iowa City, 1837 IOWAY MAP DISPLAY, (on loan from the National Archives, Smithsonian). Artifacts from Iowaville site; biographies and contributions of modern Ioway descendants (www.uiowa.edu/~nathist).

September 29-30, Sat.-Sun., 8 am-4 pm, IOWAY HERITAGE WEEKEND, Living History Farms, Urbandale (Regular admission; $11/pp, $10/Senior, $6/children 4-12). Featuring traditional Ioway language, music, and art by the Iowa Nation of Oklahoma and Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska. Evening musical performance, 6-7:30 pm Saturday only ($2 members, $3 non-members). Call about group or advance ticket discounts at 515-578-5286; www.lhf.org).

NATIVE IOWAY HISTORY WEEK EVENT SCHEDULE

(All events are FREE to IOWAY Tribal Members)

October 11, Thurs., 6pm-10:30pm, State Historical Society of Iowa, 600 E. Locust, Des Moines: THE WORLD PREMIERE OF *LOST NATION: THE IOWAY. A reception will begin at 6pm with a showing at 7pm. Another reception will begin at 8pm with the second showing at 9pm. Film, panel discussion with filmmakers and others, cultural performances by Iowa Nation of Oklahoma Drummers/Singers and a private exhibit. Ioway Tribal members free with ID; Premiere event VIP tickets: $14/pp. Order tickets at: www.IowaTix.com (click on "Historic Building") or call 515-277-3727.

October 12, Fri. morning, Living History Farms, 2600 111th Street, Urbandale. SPECIAL PRIVATE TOUR 1700 IOWAY INDIAN FARM (tribal members only).

October 12, Fri., Museum of Natural History, University of Iowa, 10 Macbride Hall, Iowa City: 1837 IOWAY MAP DISPLAY (on loan from the National Archives, Smithsonian). Artifacts from early Ioway sites; bios and accomplishments of contemporary Ioway descendants.

October 12, Fri., 7 pm. Museum of Natural History, University of Iowa, 10 Macbride Hall, Iowa City: MAPPING IOWAY HISTORY. Presentation on the 1837 Ioway Map by William Green, Director of the Logan Museum of Anthropology, Beloit College, Beloit, WI.

October 12, Fri., 7pm & 9pm, State Historical Society of Iowa, 600 E. Locust, Des Moines: Opening night to the Public, screenings of LOST NATION: THE IOWAY, followed by Question and Answer session with the filmmakers. (Ioway Tribal Members free with ID; General admission: $8/pp. Tickets are also available at IowaTix.com).

October 13, Sat., 1pm-3pm, Office of the State Archaeologist, University of Iowa, 700 Clinton Street Bldg, Iowa City: OPEN HOUSE AND DISPLAY of artifacts related to early Ioway sites; lab tour.

October 13, Sat., 2pm & 7pm, State Historical Society of Iowa, 600 E. Locust, Des Moines: Public screening of LOST NATION: THE IOWAY followed by Question and Answer session with the filmmakers. (Ioway Tribal Members free with ID; General admission: $8/pp. Tickets are also available at IowaTix.com).

October 14, Sun., 9am Depart as a carpool from Office of the State Archaeologist, University of Iowa, 700 Clinton Street Bldg, Iowa City: TRIP to IOWAVILLE SITE. The site is south and west of Iowa City in Van Buren County. Both Northern and Southern Ioway tribal members could take in the site tour as they return home on Sunday. Please bring a sack lunch if possible.

October 14, Sun., 1 pm, Oskaloosa, City Square: Optional for those not returning home on Sunday—Visit OSKALOOSA to see the Mahaska statue. The statue was created in Paris in 1909 by artist Sherry E. Fry.

October 14, Sun., 1 pm, State Historical Society of Iowa, 600 E. Locust, Des Moines: Public screening of LOST NATION: THE IOWAY followed by Question and Answer session with Melinda Carriker, film interviewee and supervisor of the 1700 Ioway Indian Farm at Living History Farms. (Ioway Tribal Members free with ID; General admission: $8/pp. Tickets are also available at IowaTix.com)

October 15, Mon., morning, Living History Farms, 2600 111th Street, Urbandale, IA: SPECIAL PRIVATE TOUR of 1700 Ioway Indian Farm (tribal members only).

LOST NATION: THE IOWAY* CONFIRMED SCREENING EVENTS

October 11-14, Thurs.-Sun., State Historical Society of Iowa, 600 E. Locust, Des Moines (see above for fees for non tribal members).

October 16, Tues., 6:30pm, Wickiup Hill, 10260 Morris Hills Road, Toddville, Q&A with filmmakers and Pete Fee. Eastern Iowa film premiere ($5/pp. or $10/family).

October 20, Sat., 7pm-9pm, Museum of Natural History, Macbride Auditorium, University of Iowa, 10 Macbride Hall, Iowa City, followed by Q/A session with the filmmakers (free).

October 21, Sun., 2pm-4:30pm, Putnam Museum/IMAX Theater, 1717 W. 12th Street, Davenport.

2-3pm MAPPING IOWAY HISTORY. Presentation on the 1837 Ioway Map by William Green, Director of the Logan Museum of Anthropology.

4-5:30pm LOST NATION: THE IOWAY, followed by Q/A session with the filmmakers.

($9/museum members or $10/nonmembers includes film, lecture, all museum exhibits) October 27, Sat., 1-3:30 pm, Luther College, 700 College Dr., Decorah. Open house at the archaeology lab (free). 3:30-5 pm, film followed by Q/A session with the filmmakers, Olin Bldg., Room 102 (free).

November 18, Sun., 2-3 pm, Western Historic Trails Center, Council Bluffs, followed by Q/A session with the filmmakers (Admission charge).

Visit the Office of the State Archaeologist web site:
www.uiowa.edu/~osa for updates to events, to search the Iowa Archaeology Month Calendar of Events, and to request a copy of this year's poster.