

“Gulf Coast Underwater: America Uncovered” Annual Rhetoric Public Forum Monday, September 26, 2005

Suggested readings:

- 1.) John McPhee - "The battle of New Orleans" Salon.com (www.salon.com/books/feature/2005/08/30/mcphee/index.html)
- 2.) Rinker Buck, "FLOOD OF GUILT; KATRINA RIPS THE VEIL OFF A THIRD WORLD AMERICA"
3. Photos - www.nola.com/katrinaphotos/tp/
4. Photos - www.npr.org
- 5.) New Yorker Talk of the Town essays - www.newyorker.com/talk/
- 6.) Commentary: "A Dream of New Orleans-Interrupted"- Andrei Codrescu -
www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=4845645
- 7.) NPR story on Mississippi: "Katrina Victims Struggle to Obtain Assistance" -
www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=4838698
- 8.) The Times-Picayune's Chris Rose on NPR (8/29): "Get Out of Town" -
www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=4821331
- 9.) ELISABETH BUMILLER, New York Times - "Gulf Coast Isn't the Only Thing Left in Tatters; Bush's Status With Blacks Takes a Hit" (A survey of the racial politics of the hurricane; Lexis-Nexis)
- 10.) Tom Zeller, Jr. "To Some, Katrina Was Mission Accomplished" New York Times, Sept. 12, 2005 (A survey of the mystical conclusions made by various groups about the storm and its damage.)