

Resolution of No Confidence in the Leadership of the Board of Regents

For consideration by the University of Iowa Staff Council on 12/13/2006

WHEREAS, The University of Iowa Staff Council recognizes that the Board of Regents has the statutory responsibility to govern the University of Iowa and to appoint our president, and

WHEREAS, the Board's leadership owes the people of the State of Iowa a duty of care in carrying out their statutory responsibilities, and

WHEREAS, this duty of care obligates the Board's leadership to take reasonable care in acting in the best interests of public higher education and the people of Iowa, and

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents' leadership has repeatedly breached the duty of care they owe to Iowans,

NOW THEREFORE, The University of Iowa Staff Council formally expresses its lack of trust and confidence in the leadership of the Board of Regents, State of Iowa.
