

Brown Bag Lunch Series

ESW Conference REPORT

Friday November 5th

12:00-1:00pm

3321 Seaman Center

The 2nd annual National Engineers for a Sustainable World Conference was held September 30th - October 3rd.

Eleven members from the Iowa ESW chapter attended this years conference, including five women from the colleges of Engineering and Public Health.

JOIN US to hear a panel of attendees report on their experiences at the ESW conference.

*****
Engineers for a Sustainable World (ESW) is committed to increasing awareness of social and environmental sustainability as a vital part of engineering as well as improving life locally and around the world.

To learn more about ESW and how to get involved, go to: www.esw.engineering.uiowa.edu

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires an accommodation in order to participate, please contact the WISE Office, at least 24 hours in advance, at 319-335-3530.